Leghorne, June 12. N. S.

BY a Tartane which arrived here two days ago from Tunis we have an Account, that the Squadron of English Men of War, under the Command of Admiral Aylmer, came to an Anchor in that Bay in the beginning of the last Month; The Bey of Tunis was then in the Country, but as soon as he heard of their Arrival, he came to Tunis and went on board the Boyne, where he and his Attendance were nobly entertained, and a great many Guns fired by the Men of War. The Bey was extreamly pleased, and gave Admiral Aylmer several Turkish Horses, and other Presents to the rest of the English Commanders and others; And as a further Demonstration of his Respect and Veneration for His Majesty of Great-Britain, and his Affection to the English Nation, he has taken off the 5 per Cent. the English paid before for the Merchandizes they imported there, and gave 50 Christian Slaves their Liberty, several of whom are come hither in the Tartane that brought this News, the rest remaining on board the English Men of War; And on the 30th of the last Month Admiral Aylmer sailed out of Tunis Bay for Tripoli.

Warsaw, June 16. Th King of Poland's Guards, and some other Saxon Regiments, making together about 4000 Men, being arrived in the Neighbourhood of this place, began to encamp yesterday. The General Diet is appointed to meet to m rrow, but so few of the Deputies from the Provincial Diets are yet arrived, that it's believed their Meeting will be put off for some days longer. The Cardinal Primate is daily expected from Silesia, he has hitherto sh wed so great an Inclination towards maintaining the Peace between this Crown and the Electorate of Brandenburgh, that 'tis not doubted but he will use his best Endeavours at the Diet, to perswade them to accept of the Offer which the Emperor and some other Princes have made of their good Offices for accommodating the Affair of Elbing. They write from Lemberg, that the Army of the Crown have resolved to send Deputies to the Diet to sollicite the Payment of their Arrears. The Commissioners appointed by the King to take Possession in his Name of the Fortress of Camniec, and of several other Places in the Provinces of Podolia and Ukrania, continue still in those Parts to execute their Commission.

Vienna, June 17. The Emperor has named the Count de Barca to go as his Ambassador to the Republick of Venice. The Count d'Ostring will not be going from hence on his Embassy to the Port till the latter end of August; this Court being desirous to see the Limits between the German and Turkish Dominions settled, before he begins his Journey. The Count of Donn, Lieutenant-Colonel of the Regiment of Staremberg, is made Colonel of the Regiment of Houchin. 'Twas lately reported, that the Emperor intended to go this Summer to Presbourg, to call together a General Diet of Hungary; but if his Imperial Majesty had taken such a Resolution, he has since altered it, and has given Directions for the Deputies of the Estates of that Kingdom to repair hither, in order to make such Regulations as shall be thought necessary for the good of that Kingdom. A Body of 9000 Men of the Imperial Forces are sent to Arat to finish the Fortifications of that Place, and the rest of the Imperial Forces are likewise to be employed in making some new Fortifications at Buda, Essek, and other Frontier Places.

Berlin, June 23. The Elector of Brandenburgh returned hither yesterday from Oranienbourg, where he passed a few days. We are expecting what Resolutions will be taken in the General Diet of Poland about the Business of Elbing; In the mean time the Elector of Brandenburgh has received Advice, that 100000 Muscovites are actually on the Borders of Smolensko, and that their General has Orders from the Czar not to stay for any farther Directions from him, but to act according to the Instructions he shall receive from his Electoral Highness, and to make an Incursion into Lithuania upon the first Notice he shall receive from the Elector, that any Hostilities are begun by the Polanders against his Subjects. Monsieur d'Opdam, Envoy Extraordinary from the States-General, arrived here some days ago. Monsieur Dankelman is lately dead at his House at Halberstadt.

Hamburgh, June 26. The last Letters from Poland give an Account, that the General Diet of that Kingdom is put off till the 27th of this Month. Our Letters from Dresden of the 20th Instant give an Account, that the Queen of Poland was expected there that day from Lichtenbourg; and that there is no more talk of her going to Poland. Part of the Saxon Forces are shortly expected in Saxony from Poland, and Quarters and other Necessaries are accordingly provided for them. The Council which had the chief Direction of Military Matters in Saxony is broke, and it's said, the Management of those Affairs will be put into the hands of Commissioners, of which Major Jordan, who is now in France as Envoy from Poland, is to be one.

The Baron de Simeoni, Envoy Extraordinary to His Majesty of Great Britain from the Elector of Bavaria, is returned hither from England.

Dieren, June 30. The King having hunted a Stag on Saturday last, returned hither in the evening; And the day following a great number of the Gentry of these Parts waited on His Majesty. His Majesty will stay here till the latter end of this week, and then return to Loo.
